

Raúl Prieto Ramírez

'Colossally talented' organist!

Friday,
OCT.
12
2018
7:30 p.m.

With brilliance and bravado, elegance and energy, this young, Spanish-born artist has staked his claim among the world's elite performers. Writes the Washington Post, "His fearless playing and, at times, brazen registrations give his eclectic programs a nery, exciting flair so often lacking in (other) classical recitals."

SPECIAL VENUE: This concert is at the Weidner Center for the Performing Arts (UW-Green Bay, 2420 Nicolet Drive Green Bay, WI 54311) to make use of the facility's world-class, 3,700-pipe organ.

Cantus

Premier ensemble!

Saturday,
NOV
10
2018
7:30 p.m.

This eight-member, a cappella group is regarded by many as America's premier male vocal ensemble. Cantus brings finesse, grace and power to repertoire spanning Renaissance to 21st century. Impeccable technique and an engaging stage presence combine for memorable, crowd-pleasing concerts.

Live, classical, professional

Experience the electricity of live classical performance — fresh, face-to-face and affordable — with both established stars and rising talent from around the world. Our series spans intimate, small-ensemble concerts to the awesome power of a full symphony orchestra.

Same low price!

With grass-roots volunteers and low overhead, our members see and hear full value in the music as performed at our traditional home, Green Bay's acoustically superb Ralph Holter Auditorium. For the 12th straight year, our five-concert series remains an incredible bargain at only $80 (adult) and $25 (student)! Won't you join us?

Five great concerts!

Something extra: Opera in the Garden

As a thank-you to members and gift to our community, Civic Music did something new this past spring by scheduling a sixth, free concert. Our first summer event and first outdoor performance, "Opera in the Garden" was set for Sunday, June 10, 2018, featuring the Florentine Opera at the Green Bay Botanical Garden.
